1) What is a topological approach?
2) What does a topological approach provide?
   Explanations for old concepts? Organization of knowledge? Reproduction of experimental results?
   Physics or fingerprints?
3) Can a topological approach be used without performing a computation?
4) Can a topological approach add up effects?
5) At what systems/properties should we look?