Itinerary

Day 1: HD Walking Tour & Santa Catalina

Arrival, check in and transfer to the hotel. At the arranged time, the tours starts by visiting the Miradores de Carmen Alto and Yanahuara, where we will get the best panoramic views of the city. Next, we will make a short stop to try the famous “queso helado” (cold cheese), a traditional arequipan dessert made from milk. We will visit the Museo del Mundo Alpaca, where we will have the chance to watch and learn about the Alpaca Michell & Cía’s pioneer fiber process, main producer and exporter of Alpaca clothing in the world. Then, we will continue our stroll thourgh the traditional San Lazaro, one of the oldest neighborhoods of the Ciudad Blanca before its foundation in 1540. Its narrow streets, sillar casonas, small temple and round field plaza makes San Lazaro a nice tiny neighborhood located in the historic center of the city considered as cultural heritage of Humanity. After that, we will walk towards the “Fundo del Fierro” craftsman place, where you can shop. We will go on to the historic center passing by the colonial houses until we reach the Plaza de Armas, where we will marvel at the Cathedral, Church and Monasteries of the Compañía. Finally, we will visit the Santa Catalina Convent going through its cells, cloisters, ashtlar fountains with gardens and narrow streets.

Day 2: Arequipa - Cañón del Colca

At the arranged time, hotel pick-up and departure towards the Cañón del Colca. We will pass by the Chachani volcano foothills, Pampa de Arrieros, Pampa Cañahuas National Reservoir (where you can see the tall vicuñas), continuing by Vizcachani, Pampas de Toccra (where you can see varieties of birds). Then, we will walk around Chucura crater to get to Patapampa (4,800 m.s.n.m) and the Mirador de los Andes, where you will see the volcanoes that surround the city Arequipa. Finally, we will go down to the small town of Chivay to have lunch.

Rest of the afternoon free to roam around.
